

When is it necessary for citizens to rebel against the gov't?

LIFE IN COLONIES

| | |
|----------------------------|---|
| | |
| Life on a Farm | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -9/10 Col. lived -Everyone pitched in to build houses -Chores = making cloth, furniture |
| Life in Cities | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -1/20 Col. Lived -Blacksmith shops, taverns, churches, garbage all of city, mosquitos & flies |
| Rights of Colonists | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -American citizens saw themselves as English Citizens and expected the same rights as citizens in England More rights to citizens b/c of : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 1215-Magna Carta limited king's power & says he must follow law 1265-Parliament = group of lawmakers created to approve laws -1689-English Bill of Rights guarantees rights as trial by jury, petitioning king, choosing representatives to create taxes |
| Life for African Americans | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Slavery in all 3 regions but mostly in South (crops/plantations) -Little hope of making a better life b/c their life was fixed at the bottom of society |
| Religion | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Horns & drums called people to worship w/ assigned seats -Houses searched to make sure everyone went to church -services = 5 hours and after lunch returned to church The Great Awakening- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -B/C people were less religious the G.A. began -idea that "God sees all as equals" spreads -Principles of liberty, equality and resisting unjust authority grow stronger |
| Education | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -N.E.- 50 families + hired a teacher Towns w/ 100 fam. built school Why? To read bible (Puritan) Few supplies; Single room -Middle Col.-Every rel. group decided whether or not to build a school Southern Col.- A few neighbors hire a tutor |

| | |
|-------------------|---|
| | |
| Colonial Families | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Indentured Servants could not marry -people married in early 20s -Married within Social Class Families used "all hands on deck" philosophy = any relative and took care of elders |
| Leisure | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Bee was an event to combine work and play -Activities included playing cards, horse racing, wrestling, dance contents, billiards |

DO NOW:

Read through 2 Column Notes.

1. Think about what is similar or dissimilar to today's society. What is good and bad? Why?

2. What parts of colonial society and life led colonists to believe in their rights as citizens?

3. Annotate by answering the aforementioned questions.