

Chapter 12

Flash Cards

What was a goal of the Monroe Doctrine? Page 236	To prevent European interference in North and South America.	What was the American "battle-cry" or slogan for the XYZ affair? Page 230.	"Millions for defense, but not one cent for tribute."
Name three results of the War of 1812. Page 234	American Indian resistance in the NW Territory weakened, national pride in the US grew, and the power of the Federalists decreased.	Why were the "War Hawks" eager to go to war with Great Britain in 1812? Page 233	They hoped to drive the British out of Canada.
What could have prevented the Battle of New Orleans? Page 234, 1st paragraph	Faster Communication.	Which event led to the policies established by the Monroe Doctrine? Bottom of Page 235	The independence movement in Latin America.
Who was hurt MOST by Jefferson's embargo on trade? Bottom of page 231.	American sea workers.	Who advised President Monroe that the United States should boldly speak for itself on its policy in the Americas? Page 236	John Quincy Adams
What event challenged the foreign policy of President Adams? Subheading on page 228.	Attacks on U.S. Ships.	What event increased tension between the United States and Great Britain in 1807? Middle of Page 230	British Killing 21 U.S. sailors.

As state in his Farewell Address, besides neutrality what word/term best describes President Washington's foreign policy? Page 226	Isolationism
Which country was MOST responsible for the change in U.S. foreign policy at the end of the 18th century? Page 230, 2nd & 3rd paragraph	Great Britain
What did the Jay Treaty accomplish in 1796? Page 228	The British removed troops from the Ohio Valley.
After going to war with each other, why did Great Britain and France seize U.S. merchant ships? Page 230	They hoped to prevent the U.S. from supplying their enemy.
Name an important achievement of John Adams's administration? Last two paragraphs on pg. 229	The nation was at peace.